Welcome to California. Here are our four most popular tours.

Desert Dreams (two-day tour)

Death Valley is one of the hottest and driest places on earth. It's in the Mojave Desert, and temperatures in summer are 50–54° C! We start our tour at Dante's View. It's the highest place on the tour, and the views of the mountains are fantastic, so bring a camera! The tour finishes at Badwater – the lowest place in America! Stay at the Furnace Creek Hotel and swim in the hotel's swimming pool.

The Avenue of the Giants tour (two-day tour)

Everything is big in California – even the trees! The Avenue of the Giants goes through a forest of Coast Redwood trees: the tallest and widest trees in the world. In fact, we drive through the middle of one of the trees! See the famous Tree House – it's a room with doors and windows inside a tree! Sleep in comfortable tents at the Burlington campground, and in the afternoon take one of our cycling or walking tours! You won't be bored!

Mountain Break (weekend tour)

Yosemite National Park is one of the most awesome places in the U. S. There are thousands of beautiful lakes, and lots of waterfalls. We think it's best to visit in winter, because you can ski or use snow shoes to walk across the park and see the amazing animals. Kids can meet the park rangers and learn all about the amazing animals in the park. Stay in the historic Wawona Hotel.
