

The present perfect: already, yet, just

1. Delete the extra word from each statement.

1. Have ~~already~~ you seen the doctor yet?
2. I've just finished my homework ~~yet~~.
3. He's ~~already~~ had just all his vaccinations.
4. I haven't spoken ~~already~~ to the dentist yet.
5. The nurse just has just called him.
6. They've called just an ambulance ~~already~~.
7. Has your cough started ~~already~~ to get better yet?
8. My grandpa has just had the flu ~~yet~~.

2. Write statements and questions.

1. Matt / fall / off his bike / just
Matt has just fallen off his bike.
2. we / yet / not / have / dinner
 _____
 _____
3. my cousins / go / already / on vacation
 _____
 _____
4. my mom / call / the doctor / just
 _____
 _____
5. you / yet / take / your medicine?
 _____
 _____
6. I / see / already / that movie
 _____
 _____
7. James / not have / yet / his operation
 _____
 _____
8. I / speak / already / to Jane
 _____
 _____

3. Complete the second statement so it has a similar meaning to the first. Use already, yet, or just.

1. I cleaned my teeth a few minutes ago.
 I've just cleaned my teeth.
2. I've read that book before.
 I've _____ that book.
3. I'm still doing my homework.
 I haven't _____.
4. I had my shots a few months ago.
 I've _____.
5. Sam was here a minute ago, and then he left.
 Sam _____ left.
6. Is it still raining?
 Has it stopped _____?